Did you know that there are times when you should look directly into the camera? Did you also know that there are times when you should look just off camera? This is the sort of thing you will learn ONLY in our class. You WILLNOT learn this in any other workshop!

Definition: Actor offers the most highly intense workshop that has ever been attempted! It all starts with respect for your coaches, then bleeds down to respect for the craft, and very late in the game a residual understanding that there is room for the self, the “i” to blossom and flourish though examination, acceptance, self- and group-love—it will be an experience that results in...who knows? But it will be fun!

Want to know who booked that audition you read so well for? Learn how to call the casting director and demand an explanation!

Don’t be caught off guard! Know exactly when your commercial list is most likely to be requested!

Remember: You’re an actor because you don’t like yourself. Rock and roll!

Find Inner Strength Through Intensive New Growth.

Learn why you can’t book, and why you probably will never be able to book!

Together, and with others, we have centuries of teaching experience.

Commercial “Classes”

Improv class

Why does everyone search for the “truth” whilst auditioning? Any casting director will tell you: That isn’t funny. Learn how to lie (L.I.E.). The L.I.E. technique teaches you that Laughter Inevitably comes if you try hard Enough. Get it? L.I.E. Wonderful!

Emotional Range Class

Are you able to cry on demand? With our technique of Constant Criticism™, we offer a full money-back guarantee that you will most likely cry and will probably be able to do so upon command.

Audition Class

Are you giving enough of yourself? While other classes erroneously focus only on your face, we know that your whole head is the key to your commercial success. Why do you think they ask for profiles? Give more. Stop giving “face”, start giving “head”!

Master Avail Class

You probably don’t have the right “look” or the “skill” to land a national commercial. With our Master Avail class, you WILL start getting put on “avail”, and, if something terrible or unfortunate should happen to their “first choice”, you could book that spot! We guarantee it! Rock and roll!

Booking Class

Nowadays, everyone tries to think outside of “the box”. So much so that it is no longer original! Get back into the box. Learn more about your personal space. There is immense, immense spiritual power there. If you are open to our creative influences, together, we will get inside of your box.
